Welcome to the presentation on "Planning for Startups: Legal and Ethical Steps."

By KR Suresh

In today's webinar we will learn the following:

- 1)What is a startup?
- 2)Why to startup?
- 3)When to startup?
- 4)Where to startup?
- 5)How to startup?

What you will learn today

What is a startup?

A startup is a business venture that invokes a new idea incorporating technology for finding a solution to a problem, that can be scaled up quickly:

- 1)Idea
- 2)Problem
- 3)Solution
- 4)Technology
- 5)Scale up

Why to startup?

1)You will be solving a real world problem helping the people, the country and the world.

- 2)You will be famous .
- 3)You will become a billionaire.

Can you identify the people in these photos?

When to startup?

Stages of Startup idea:

- 1) Ideation
- 2) Brainstorming
- 3) Finding a copartner(s)
- 4) Market research
- 5) Start/register the company
- 6) Bootstrap and do business
- 7) Go for funding for expansion and fast scale up

Where to startup

Can you identify the photo given above?
Where is it and which company?
These photos are related to each other.

The photo above is in Chennai.
The one below is in Sivaganga, Kottayur.
Both are offices of Zoho, The famous SAAS startup founded by Sridhar Vembu.
So it shows you can begin your journey anywhere in the country or the world.
You can start it in Virudhunagar also.

How to startup

You can start as a:

- 1) Proprietorship
- 2) Partnership
- 3) OPC (One person company)
- 4) Limited company

Out of the above options, limited company is preferable as it will help in registering your start up with government agencies like Startup India.

It will help in getting government grants, subsidies, recognition, etc.

It will also help in getting funding from various other agencies.

- 1) Seed funding
- 2) Angel funding
- 3) Venture funding
- 4) Private Equity
- 5) IPO

Nowadays even pre-seed funding is available.

Ethics In Startups

Follow strict corporate governance in your startup.

Treat everyone equally and fairly.

No discrimination on the basis of gender, race, caste, religion, nationality, etc.

Disclose actual business revenue, profit and loss, growth and decline or any other problems to your investors.

Don't fudge the figures to get a better valuation, funding for your company.

Can you recognise the person in the photo?

It is Byju Ravendran, CEO and Founder of Byju's, once the world's most valued startup (value fell from $21 billion to $1 billion now).
