Venue: CSE Conference Hall - 1

The Department of Mechatronics Engineering of our institute feels delighted and extremely happy for organizing an Alumni interaction on “Higher Studies Opportunities In Abroad For Mechatronics Engineers” for our III-year and IV-year Mechatronics students on 19-09-2023.

The topics to be covered during the interaction:

1. Importance of higher studies
2. Improving skills related to communications
3. Foreign exposure for education
4. Softwares used in Laboratory
5. Basic knowledge in the subjects

Opening remarks and introduction of the programme was given by Dr. K. KANNAN, Prof. & HoD/MTRE. Dr. P. Balasundar, Department Alumni coordinator gave the Alumni resource person introduction.

Then the Alumni resource person Mr. R. Prince Yona R L C (2018-2022 Batch) M.Sc General Management, PFH Private Hochschule, Gottingen, Germany, delivered the Alumni interaction Guest lecture on the topic of “Higher Studies Opportunities In Abroad For Mechatronics Engineers”. First, he introduced about himself and started his interaction with our third and final year mechatronics engineering students. He introduce the higher studies exposure in germany and importance about his course. He advised to carry out the project work sincerely with interest and complete the report on time. During the higher studies it will help so much for completing the research work. He also inform to our students to improve the communications skills and give awareness to have the basic knowledge in engineering subjects for understanding the recent trends in the Engineering field.

In between the session, he asked the questions about the higher studies interest to the students and interact with the Alumni resource person and make the session interactive. Dr. P. Balasundar, Department Alumni coordinator, conclude the session with vote of thanks.

Outcome	This program explores the knowledge and interest of the students in the field of Higher studies for their career growth.
