About The SIP 2026

The Student Induction Programme (SIP) is a comprehensive initiative authorized by AICTE to support freshers joining engineering institutions across the country. It is designed to help newly admitted students adapt to the academic environment, develop confidence, and actively engage in campus life.

The Faculty coordinators of the Student Induction Programme work closely with newly joined first year students to:

1. Create a comfortable and welcoming environment for students as they begin their engineering journey.
2. Encourage students to explore their academic interests, talents, and co-curricular activities.
3. Promote a culture of excellence by reducing unhealthy competition and encouraging collaborative learning.
4. Foster bonding and team spirit among students through various interactive activities.
5. Strengthen positive relationships between teachers and students through meaningful interaction and mentoring.
6. Provide a broader perspective on life, education, and society while nurturing students' character, values, and overall personality.

Art from Waste is a creative and experiential learning activity in which students create useful, decorative and innovative products from waste, scrap and discarded materials such as old newspapers, magazines, cardboard, plastic bottles, bottle caps, cloth pieces, ice-cream sticks, etc. Instead of throwing away waste, students reimagine and transform it into meaningful and valuable art.

As part of SIP 2026, the Art from Waste Activity was conducted for all 14 student groups from 07.09.2026 (Monday) to 10.09.2026 (Thursday). Each group was facilitated by an assigned faculty member. Students participated in teams of 7-8 members and were encouraged to bring waste materials from home/hostel and convert them into innovative models and products.

The activity encouraged students to use their own imagination, ideas and teamwork rather than depending on readymade or costly materials. The activity was successfully conducted from 07.09.2026 to 10.09.2026, covering all 14 groups. A winner was identified from each group based on their performance and participation, and the details were handed over to the SIP coordinators for recognition during the valedictory programme.

STUDENT INDUCTION PROGRAMME 2026

“ROLE PLAY ACTIVITY”

1. Objective of the Activity

The Role Play Activity was organized as part of the Student Induction Program (SIP) 2026 to help newly admitted students develop confidence, communication skills, interpersonal skills and collaborative behaviour in a friendly and engaging environment.

The specific objectives of the activity were to:

- Develop students' confidence in interacting with peers and faculty.
- Encourage effective verbal communication and active participation.
- Help students understand and respond to common situations encountered during their initial days of college life.
- Promote teamwork, cooperation and mutual understanding.
- Develop problem-solving and decision-making skills through simulated real-life situations.
- Encourage creativity and spontaneous thinking through student-created dialogues and performances.
- Help students overcome hesitation and become comfortable in their new academic environment.
- Provide an opportunity for students to reflect on their experiences and learn from their peers.

2. About the Activity

Role Play is an experiential learning activity in which students act out a real-life situation by taking different roles. Instead of merely discussing a situation, students imagine themselves in the given situation, assume different characters, create dialogues using their own words and ideas, perform the situation and identify a suitable solution.

As part of SIP 2026, the Role Play Activity was conducted for all 14 student groups. Each group was facilitated by an assigned faculty member. Students participated in role-play situations related to common first-year college experiences such as:

1. First-day college experience and overcoming hesitation.
2. Making a new student feel included.
3. Asking questions and overcoming fear of asking doubts.
4. Managing classes, assignments, friends, clubs and personal activities.
5. Handling situations in the college canteen.
6. Working together to take a group photograph.
7. Completing assignments without postponing work.
8. Seeking correct information instead of relying on incorrect assumptions.
9. Teamwork and participation in sports activities.
10. Understanding college bus routes and procedures.

The activity encouraged students to use their own ideas and dialogues rather than memorizing lengthy scripts.

Each role-play session followed a structured activity process consisting of team formation, situation/topic allocation, role assignment and planning, rehearsal, performance, and reflection/feedback. The planned duration was 90 minutes.

The activity was successfully conducted from 07.09.2026 to 10.09.2026, covering all 14 groups. A winner was identified from each group based on their performance and participation, and the details were handed over to the SIP coordinators for recognition during the valedictory programme.

As part of the Student Induction Programme 2026, a Talent Show was organized to provide first-year students with an opportunity to showcase their individual talents and creative abilities. A circular was sent in advance, informing the students about the various events and encouraging them to participate either individually or as a team.

The Talent Show included a variety of cultural and literary activities such as Silambam, Tamil Elocution, English Elocution, Singing, Classical Dance, Mime Show, Skit, Debate, and Playing Musical Instruments. Students enthusiastically participated in the events and demonstrated their talents, creativity, confidence, and stage presence.

The Silambam performance highlighted the students' traditional martial arts skills and physical coordination. The Tamil and English Elocution events provided a platform for students to express their ideas and improve their communication and public-speaking abilities. The Singing and Classical Dance performances showcased the students' artistic and cultural talents.

The Mime Show and Skit encouraged teamwork, creativity, expression, and effective storytelling without relying solely on dialogue. The Debate provided students with an opportunity to present their views, develop logical thinking, and engage in constructive discussion. The Playing Musical Instruments segment enabled students with musical abilities to perform and share their skills with their peers.

The event created an energetic and enjoyable atmosphere and encouraged students to overcome stage fear, build self-confidence, interact with their peers, and appreciate diverse talents. The Talent Show successfully supported the objectives of the Student Induction Programme by promoting creativity, confidence, teamwork, communication skills, cultural awareness, and overall personality development among the first-year students.

STUDENT INDUCTION PROGRAM 2026

“TEAM BUILDING ACTIVITY”

1. Objective of the Activity

The Team Building Activity was organised as part of the Student Induction Programme (SIP) 2026 to help newly admitted students develop collaboration, effective communication, quick problem-solving, and leadership skills within a structured classroom setting.

The specific objectives of the activity were to:

- Promote teamwork, mutual trust, and cohesion by organising students into structured teams of seven members each.
- Develop cognitive quickness and problem-solving through linguistic and unscrambling challenges.
- Enhance active listening, non-verbal communication, and coordination skills across team members.
- Encourage healthy competition to select the best-performing team in each group.
- Help students overcome hesitation and forge strong peer relationships during their initial days on campus.

2. About the Activity

The Team Building Activity was an interactive classroom event structured into three distinct challenge rounds. Students in each section were split into teams consisting of seven members per team.

The activity featured three progressive rounds designed to test various facets of teamwork and mental agility:

ACTIVITY 1: Crack the Kural – Unscramble the Wisdom (Focus: Logic, Tamil literature comprehension, and collective unscrambling) – Teams were challenged to correctly reconstruct jumbled Thirukural lines within a fixed time limit through internal collaboration.

ACTIVITY 2: END2BEGIN – The Ultimate Word Challenge (Focus: Vocabulary strength, speed, and continuous team chain thinking) – A high-energy word-chain game where team members had to rapidly build new words using the ending letter of the preceding word under strict timing.

ACTIVITY 3: ACTION ECHO – One Gesture. Seven Minds. One Final Reveal. (Focus: Non-verbal communication, observation, alignment, and synergy) – A non-verbal relay where a secret phrase/action was passed sequentially down all seven team members through gestures alone before revealing the final interpretation.

Out of all competing teams in a classroom session, the best team was evaluated and selected based on collective speed, accuracy, coordination, and team synergy.

The activity process followed a structured sequence: team formation (7 per team), rule brief, execution of rounds 1–3, evaluation, and reflection/feedback. The planned duration was 90 minutes.

The activity was successfully conducted from 07.09.2026 to 10.09.2026 across all 14 student groups. A best team was identified from each group based on their performance, and the details were handed over to the SIP coordinators for recognition during the valedictory programme.

6. Outcome of the Activity

The Team Building Activity was successfully completed for all 14 student groups as part of SIP 2026.

The major outcomes observed from the activity were:

- Enhanced Communication & Synergy: Students actively communicated non-verbally and verbally through structured team rounds, building coordination and listening skills.
- Problem-Solving & Agility: The three rounds challenged students to process information quickly and solve logic and linguistic problems collectively under strict time constraints.
- Team Dynamic & Trust: Working in small teams of seven enabled every student to actively participate rather than remain passive listeners, promoting strong interpersonal trust.
- Leadership & Strategy: Best teams demonstrated strategic thinking, assigning specific tasks based on individual strengths during the Kural and Word challenges.
- Recognition of Best Team: Out of all participating teams in each group, one Best Team was identified based on cumulative scores across the three rounds, and the details were submitted to the SIP coordinators for recognition during the valedictory programme.

Conclusion:

The Team Building Activity under Student Induction Program 2026 was successfully conducted for all 14 groups. The activity provided an interactive and experiential platform for first-year engineering students to develop communication, confidence, teamwork, quick thinking, and problem-solving abilities while establishing strong bonds with their peers. The successful completion of the activity and identification of group-level best teams demonstrated active student participation and high enthusiasm throughout the programme.
